

The Launch of the Toronto Edition of the Canada Chinatown series and

Conference on

“Chinese Canadians: Mobility, Culture and Community”

Remarks given by

- Larry Alford, Chief Librarian, University of Toronto Libraries
- Paul Crowe, Co-Chair, Chinese Canadian History Project Council
- The Honourable Vivienne Poy, Honorary Patron, Chancellor Emerita of the University of Toronto
- G. Raymond Chang, Chancellor Emeritus of Ryerson University
- David Choi, Co-Chair, Chinese Canadian History Project Council

Conference chaired by the Honourable Vivienne Poy

“Toronto Chinatowns: Past and Present”

David Chuenyan Lai, Emeritus Professor of Geography, University of Victoria

“Cantonese and English: Cross-Cultural Reflections on Naming and Transliteration”

Jan Walls, Emeritus Professor of Humanities, Simon Fraser University

“Chinese or Canadian: Challenges of Social Integration for contemporary Chinese Immigrants”

Jack H.T. Leong, Director, Richard Charles Lee Canada-Hong Kong-Library, University of Toronto

“Chinese Canadian Religious Communities and the Transformation of Multiculturalism”

Paul Crowe, Director, David Lam Centre & Associate Professor of Humanities, Simon Fraser University

“A Passage to Canada: Translation, Transnation, and Transfiguration in Iron Road”

Jessica Li, Faculty Associate, York Centre for Asian Research, York University

Monday, October 15, 2012
9:30 AM to 2:00 PM

Richard Charles Lee
Canada-Hong Kong Library
8th floor, Robarts Library
130 St. George Street
University of Toronto

ORGANIZERS

- Richard Charles Lee
Canada-Hong Kong Library,
University of Toronto
- David Lam Centre,
Simon Fraser University

SPONSORS

- Asian Institute,
Munk School of Global Affairs,
University of Toronto
- Toronto Chinatown Business
Improvement Area

Refreshments will be served.

Please RSVP at

<http://webapp.mcis.utoronto.ca/ai/Events.aspx>

by October 8, 2012

ASIAN INSTITUTE