

1 old boy _____

2 old lag _____

3 Old Nick _____

4 my old man _____

5 old hand _____

6 old guard _____

7 my old lady _____

8 old girl _____

9 old stager _____

10 old-timer _____

11 old sweat _____

12 old codger _____

13 old woman _____

14 old maid _____

15 old master _____

16 old Adam _____

17 old curmudgeon _____

18 old geezer _____

19 old flame _____

20 old school _____

21 old salt _____

a (British, informal) one's mother, wife or female partner

b (informal, derogatory) a timid, prim, or fussy person, especially a man

c (derogatory) a single woman regarded as too old for marriage

d a mean and bad-tempered person, usually an old one e a great artist of former times, especially of the 13th-17th century in Europe

f a very experienced or long serving person; (N America) an old person

g (British, informal) a habitual convict

h (informal) the Devil

i (informal) a veteran soldier j (British, informal) one's father, husband or male partner

k (British) a former male student of a school

l a very experienced or long-serving person

m (North American, derogatory) an old man n (informal, derogatory) an elderly man, especially an eccentric one

o a person with a lot of experience in a certain field

p the original or long-standing member of a group, regarded as conservative

q the sinful nature inherent in man

r a former lover

s (informal, chiefly British) an elderly woman

t (informal) an experienced sailor

u adherents of traditional ideas and practices