2016 March 24 (Thursday)

- o Grounds were like skating rinks
- o The freezing rain encased everything it touched in ice
- o This morning, ice cubes were blown down from trees
- o Pedestrians were advised to watch for falling ice
- o Over 100,000 homes in Ontario were hit with no power
- o Our area was blessed this time, unlike the year of the last polar vortex

This morning (March 25)

- o I treaded out to explore
