

Wulai Taiwan

烏來

2017 March 10

Much to my surprise.....

Desolate

Deserted

Town still recovering from the havoc caused the typhoon in 2015.
Lots of re-construction underway

Choo-
choo
train
track
under repair

We had to walk
uphill
to see the falls

Long walk, but nice views along the way

Finally there

The Falls looked the same as before

Only a handful of people up
there

Quiet as ever.

We had the place to ourselves.

Wulai – a different takeaway memory
